Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

(a) On June 28, 2006, Calavo Growers, Inc. (the "Company") dismissed Deloitte & Touche LLP ("D&T") as the independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors approved the dismissal of D&T.

D&T's reports on the Company's financial statements for the years ended October 31, 2005 and 2004 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principle.

During the years ended October 31, 2005 and 2004 and through June 28, 2006, there were no disagreements with D&T on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of D&T, would have caused them to make reference thereto in connection with their reports on the financial statements for such years.

During the years ended October 31, 2005 and 2004 and through June 28, 2006, there were no reportable events as described in Regulation S-K Item 304(a)(1)(v), except as follows: in accordance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, the Company completed its assessment of the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting and concluded that the Company's internal control over financial reporting was effective as of October 31, 2005. D&T issued an adverse opinion on management's assessment of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting because of management's omission of a material weakness regarding the proper classification of cash flows in an unusual transaction from its report and an adverse opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of October 31, 2005 because of this material weakness. The Company's Audit Committee discussed this matter with D&T. Additional details on the material weakness in internal control over financial reporting are discussed in Item 9A of the Company's 2005 Form 10-K.

The Company has provided D&T with a copy of the foregoing disclosure and has requested that D&T furnish the Company with a letter, addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission, stating whether or not D&T agrees with the statements made herein, and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. A copy of the letter from D&T, dated June 29, 2006, is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 16.1.

(b) The Company is currently undergoing procedures to retain another independent registered public accounting firm. The Company has authorized D&T to respond fully to inquiries of the successor independent registered public accounting firm including the material weakness in internal control over financial reporting discussed above.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits

16.1 Letter from D&T dated June 29, 2006.
